

National Conference on “Building Nations of Peace: Our Shared Responsibility” to be organized by Universal Peace Federation, India in collaboration with IGNOU Regional Centre, Bhopal on 12th September, 2014

There is a growing realization across the world that the critical issues like peace and security for all cannot be meaningfully addressed without the active involvement of all the stakeholder. Neither Government nor Institutions of civil society alone can address these needs as long as each of us bear a shared responsibility.

The Universal Peace Federation (UPF) is the world's most diverse network of individuals and organizations in the non-government sector dedicated to building a world of lasting peace. UPF is also an NGO with special consultative status with the Social and Economic Council of the United Nations and have active branches in more than 160 countries globally. UPF works with individuals, as well as in families, societies, nations and world transcending race, nationality and religion.

With this realization, the India chapter of UPF will hold a special national peace leadership conference on the theme, “Building Nations of Peace: Our Shared Responsibility” for the benefit of students on 12th September, 2014. A team of six persons led by Dr. Chung Sik Young, Chairman of UPF-Asia which will include Dr. Robert S Kittel, Director of Education, UPF-Asia, and volunteers from Japan and India will be visiting Bhopal on this date.

The venue of the programme will be as follows:

REGIONAL SCIENCE CENTRE
